LOT 3541 - Caliber: 450-400 3".

LOT 3578 - Per the consignor, this shotgun was previously owned by Judge Edwin A. Robson (1905-1986), the consignor's grandfather. Robson was the chief judge of the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois in 1970-1975 after being nominated to the court by President Eisenhower in the late 1950s. Among his noteworthy decisions was ruling that it is not disorderly conduct to argue with a police officer. His legal career began back in the late 1920s. In 1945, he was elected to the Superior Court of Cook County and became chief judge of the court in 1950. The following year, he became a justice on the Appellate Court of the 1st District of Illinois.

LOT 3598 - Canjar style single set trigger. Condition should read: Trigger needs adjustment, mechanically excellent.
